End of Term Three, 2019 Newsletter

Principal's Message

I would like to encourage our continuing students to engage in useful activities academically and socially throughout the end year holiday and be good ambassadors of Light Academy

I believe that parents, Students and Teachers are important pillars of quality education and I appreciate the effort made by our parents, teachers and the student community that has led to the great achievements throughout the year.

May God strengthen our bonds and enhance our love for humanity.

On behalf of the staff, I wish all our students and parents a nice holiday and a Happy new year 2020.

ZANZIBAR TRIP

After KCSE, we have organized a trip to Zanzibar for the candidates in December

HOLIDAY ASSIGNMENTS

It is our routine to give assignments to all students as they go for long vacations. This is to give an insight to our students to keep revisiting their books during the holiday in order to provide links in academic content between the consecutive terms. We remind our parents to keep following up on their children while at home to ensure that these assignments will be completed in time and remain fruitful to the students as intended.
